195CE Internship Course Learning Agreement

This learning agreement is meant to establish lines of effective communication and outline general expectations for partner sites with the UCLA Center for Community Engagement 195CE Internship Courses.

This agreement is between the Regents of the University of California on behalf of the UCLA Center for Community Engagement ("UCLA CCE") and the __________________ (“Internship Site”) (collectively, the “partners”) during the __________________ Quarter during the ____________ Academic Year, starting on ____________ and ending ____________.

(Student: please insert current quarter and academic year, along with start and end dates for quarter)

195CE Internship Course

Eligible junior and senior standing students (90+ units) pursuing a 195CE Internship Course participate in corporate, governmental, or nonprofit-based internships coordinated through the Center for Community Engagement. Students complete weekly written assignments, attend biweekly meetings with Graduate Student Instructors, and a final project. The Graduate Student Instructor and Faculty Mentor construct a series of reading assignments that examine issues related to community engagement scholarship and the department.

Partners’ Roles and Responsibilities

Internship Site Responsibilities
